

Stop

|             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Verse 1     | When you're youngYou play ball to winNow you're big and badYou don't give inIt's push, push, pushTo be ahead of the timesKing of a groupOne of a kind                                                               |
| Verse 2     | Do you hold a gunDo you shoot to killDo you have headacheDo you take a pillIt's go, go, goUntil you affect someoneIf you affect yourselfYou might come undone                                                       |
| Chorus 1    | No time to stopWhen you want to be number oneNo time to stopNumber ones have all the funNo time to stopYou've got no time, no timeNo time to stopYou've got no time, no timeNo time to stop, stop, stop         |
| Chorus 2    | No time to stopWhen you want to be first classNo time to stopFirst class wears the pleasure maskNo time to stopYou've got no time, no timeNo time to stopYou've got no time, no timeNo time to stop, stop, stop |
| Music Break |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Verse 3     | There's always going to beSomeone to beatIf you're not a blue ribbonYou're out on the streetIt's shove, shove, shoveWalk over anybodySo you can get there fastAnd not be a nobody                                   |
| Chorus 2    | No time to stopWhen living is bought with moneyNo time to stopLots of money or we'll go hungryNo time to stopYou've got no time, no timeNo time to stopYou've got no time, no timeNo time to stop, stop, stop   |