

The Portrait

Verse 1	Under a midnight moon By the ocean touched in blue light You wrapped us in a cocoon In your black overcoat around us tight
Refrain	And I saw in your eyes A look that would never die And I've dreamed all my life Of that night
Chorus	Of the midnight moon That I painted in blue The midnight moon When I fell into you The midnight moon
Verse 2	The wind tangled your hair You confessed you weren't perfect but I Saw perfection there So I painted your portrait that night
Refrain	And I saw in your eyes A look that would never die And I've dreamed all my life Of that night
Chorus	Of the midnight moon That I painted in blue The midnight moon When I fell into you
Post-Chorus	And the portrait that I made Hangs on our wall today
Music Break Middle 8	Sometimes I feel like I'm standing Alone on that beach in the dark And I search through the haze For yesterday And that look on your face
Verse 3	Sometimes when I forget Just what you mean to me I look at the portrait I painted Of you and the blue butterfly And all that we found on that night
Chorus Post-Chorus Chorus Vamp	Of the midnight moon ... And the portrait that I made ... The midnight moon that I painted in blue...
