

We Draw the Line

Verse 1 Railroad tracks and arbor fences
 Tenements and castle walls
 Social class and bold pretenses
 Keep us apart in a world so small

Verse 2 Regiments and reichs and orders
 Holy books and their crusades
 Neighborhoods and city colors
 Keep us apart when we're one in the same

Pre-Chorus We take one more step towards tomorrow
 And with one more step
 We still are blind
 Been this way forever
 Supremacy endeavors
 At the heart of the human race

Chorus And we draw the line
 Between yours and mine
 We draw the line
 Between yours and mine

Verse 3 Anesthetized by color vision
 Blood of hatred on our hands
 Can't seem to make a brotherhood
 When a fearful heart we won't transcend

Pre-Chorus We take one more step towards tomorrow
 And with one more step we still are blind...

Chorus And we draw the line...

Bridge Liberate yourself
 From the chain that blinds
 Liberate yourself
 From the little minds
 Illuminate yourself

Chorus And we draw the line
 Between yours and mine
 We draw the line
 Between yours and mine

Chorus
Chant Oh way oh way oh, way oh way...
